HELLO! I AM...

Kay
Wilemon

YOUR CASE COORDINATOR

Please take a moment to read through my profile to learn more about me and my role in your adoption journey.

ABOUT ME

I originally joined the company as an Adoptive Parent Coordinator in 2019, grateful to nurture my personal connection to adoption through a career. Shortly after, I took on the role of Case Coordinator and eventually also became the Director of Adoptive Parent Services. I'm so passionate about what I do and am proud to have dedicated my career to helping adoptive families.

When I'm not working, I love to be outside and active, especially when it's hot and sunny. Family is very important to me, so I spend a lot of time with my husband and three children. I am a Yogi, am an avid reader, love to cook, and will never turn down a chance to dance.

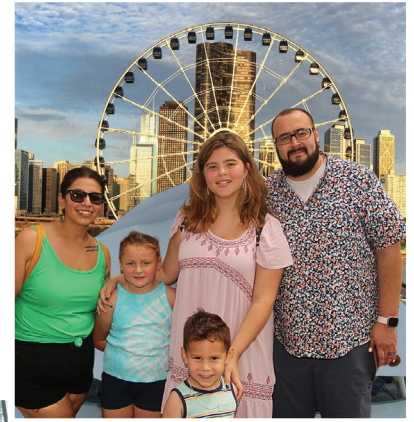

MY FAMILY & PETS

I come from a very large, loud, Latin family. There's always something to celebrate or some big family dinner on the calendar. No matter the occasion, there's always a lot of laughter involved. I love hosting Thanksgiving every year, and on Christmas we have an "open-door policy," which means anyone and everyone is invited any time of day, and food is kept hot and ready all day for anyone to partake in.

At home, I live with my husband, three kids, and a sweet Beagle named Nola. Nola is still a puppy, not in age, but in spirit, and is lovingly named after my husband and my favorite place: New Orleans.

HOW ADOPTION HAS TOUCHED MY LIFE

My life was touched by adoption when I was just a child. My older brother and his girlfriend (now my sister-in-law) placed their daughter for adoption when they were just teenagers. Years later, their daughter sought out her birth family and was eventually able to meet our entire family. Today, my niece has a relationship with her birth parents, siblings, and extended family. Because of this experience, I have a deep-rooted commitment to adoption and understand firsthand how beautiful it is.

ADOPTIVE PARENTS

First and foremost, I want to thank you for trusting me as part of your adoption team. It's an honor to work with adoptive families, and I'm so looking forward to working with you.

I'm a Case Coordinator, which means I come into the picture when legal services do. My role is to coordinate all the necessary parties, make sure everyone has all up-to-date information, and basically keep the train on the tracks. I'm an excellent sounding board (if I do say so myself). I can always offer guidance based on my experience and I'm always happy to reach out and advocate for my adoptive families. Essentially, I'm here to help get you to the finish line.

I want you to know how excited I am for you. This is not an easy journey, but here you are, taking a leap of faith and throwing yourself into the possibility of growing your family. This journey is different for everyone of course, but you should be proud to be here.

I hope my profile gives you a good idea of who I am and how I can help, but you're always welcome to reach out to me if you'd like to learn more. I'm glad to be working with you, and I am so hopeful for you.

Kay
